

Volunteer

Public Lands Information Centers

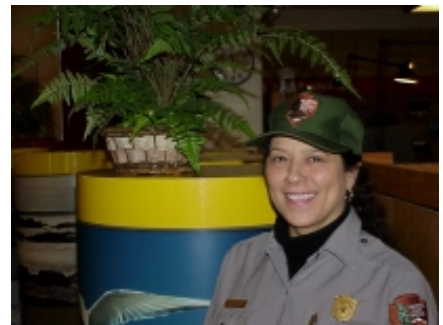

Be a volunteer at Alaska Public Lands Information Center

Would you like to be a volunteer at Alaska Public Lands Information Center?

- ⌘ Learn more about Alaska's great public lands
- ⌘ Assist visitors to Alaska in a setting of natural history exhibits
- ⌘ Meet interesting people
- ⌘ Participate in staff field trips (when available)
- ⌘ Work on special projects e.g. GIS, Internet, library
- ⌘ Gain experience working in an outdoor recreation/public information office
- ⌘ Do volunteer work where YOU can make a difference

You may qualify for a meal and transportation stipend. We will work with your university professors for possible college credit. "Letters of Recommendation" will be written for volunteers who reach a certain number of hours and performance standards.

Contact: Chris Smith
Alaska Public Lands Information Center
605 West 4th Avenue, Suite 105
Anchorage, Alaska 99501
Phone: (907) 271-2743
Internet: Chris_Smith@nps.gov